A Visionary Leader in Law, Business, and Social Impact

H.E. Samantha Yem is a remarkable Cambodian leader who bridges the worlds of law, business, and social impact. Her journey embodies resilience and a commitment to her home country.

Born in Cambodia, she immigrated to the United States after the Khmer Rouge regime. This experience ignited a passion for justice and opportunity, leading her to pursue a distinguished academic career. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Biological Science, an MBA, and embarked on a PhD program (ABD) in the United States.

In 1999, driven by a desire to contribute to Cambodia's development, Ms. Yem returned home. She transitioned from academia, where she served as an Associate Professor at Humphreys College, to become a legal scholar practitioner. Today, she is a respected Advocate and Attorney-At-Law and the founder of Samantha Keith Law Firm, a thriving law firm and MIG Group of Companies.

Ms. Samantha Yem's expertise is multi-faceted. She holds an LLB and a Master of Laws from the Royal University of Law and Economics in Cambodia, complementing her US degrees.

This comprehensive background allows her to navigate complex legal issues in cross-national diversity management, international business relations & diplomacy, investment strategy, banking & finance law, corporate and commercial law, labor and immigration law, and trust law.

Her leadership extends beyond the legal realm. In 2022, Ms. Yem was appointed Advisor to the Royal Government of Cambodia by Royal Decree, currently holding office at the Council of Ministers. This appointment reflects her dedication to public service and her commitment to shaping Cambodia's future.

Ms. Yem's dedication extends beyond professional achievements. She envisions a world built on inclusivity, where individuals are empowered to live with dignity and liberty. This vision is reflected in her recent appointment on 23rd of February 2024 as Advisor to the President of the Cambodian People's Party, Samdach Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen.

Her commitment to social good is further evidenced by the prestigious National Medal of Honor bestowed upon her by His Majesty King Norodom Sihamoni in 2023, including the Royal Order of Cambodia (Grand Officer & Grand Cross) and the Medal of National Merit.

H.E. Samantha Yem stands as a beacon of excellence, combining legal expertise, entrepreneurial spirit, and a tireless dedication to Cambodia's social and economic development. Her remarkable journey and unwavering vision make her a powerful force for positive change.
